Why be in India?

- India is SECOND largest producer of Fruits, Vegetables, Food Grains
- India is the LARGEST producer of Milk
- India is the LARGEST producer of Spices
- Indian food and grocery market is world's SIXTH largest
- Food is one of the LARGEST segments in Indian retail sector
- Indian FOOD RETAIL MARKET expected to reach USD 894.98 billion by 2020
- Indian SNACKS MARKET world's fastest growing market at a rate of 16.6%

Indian Food Processing sector:

- Received USD 6.70 billion worth FDI from 2000-2015
- Has potential to attract USD 33 billion FDI over next 10 years
- 100% FDI permitted in multi-brand retailing of food products
- Setting up of 42 mega food parks is underway

Indian Food Industry:

- Presently valued at USD 39.71 billion
- Expected to grow at a CAGR of 11%
- Projected to be USD 65.4 billion by 2018

Indian Food Imports:

- SECOND largest importer of cooking oils
- FASTEST emerging food import market

Indian food scenario is bound to grow and imports will continue to play a major role subject to the support or fair acceptance they get from several government authorities. One can clearly foresee a growth in areas that aid health and nutrition, for example, fresh fruits, dry fruits, specialty food products, dairy, and cheese. Demand trends clearly indicate that Indian consumers are looking for more healthy products. The farmers also benefit in this process. One example is the success story of apple growers of Himanchal Pradesh whose produce now fetch a much higher price than in the past. It is also necessary to ensure that the consumer gets quality products.

Potential Investment Sectors:

Prominent among the areas waiting to be tapped are canning, packaging, refrigeration for dairy, poultry, fisheries, meat, ready to eat products, cereals and grains, soft drinks consumer product groups like confectionery, chocolates, coco products, soya-based products, mineral water, high protein foods and nutraceuticals, apart from health food and health food supplements, a rapidly rising segment of the food processing industry.

About the Show:

The 9th Edition of 'India Foodex 2017' will be held from 28-30 August 2017 at BIEC, Bangalore, India. In order to enhance its value further, there will be concurrent shows addressing the needs of the different related sectors, 8th 'GrainTech India 2017', 7th 'DairyTech India 2017', and 4th 'MeatTech Asia 2017', 3rd Food Park India, 2nd SnackBev India.

The Eighth edition of India's largest food and agribusiness exposition series, India Foodex, offered an impressive show of food processing, packaging, storage and warehousing technologies to the visitors and delighted the exhibitors with overwhelming response. Over the years, the series have gained immense popularity among the leading international players of the sector and provide the opportunity to emerging players to make their mark in the industry. "India Foodex 2016" which, besides India, attracted participation from 30 countries had more than 370 exhibitors displayed their products at the show receiving a footfall of over 35000 trade visitors.

The two day concurrent 3rd International AgriBusiness Congress (iABC) was organized in association with Federation of Karnataka Chamber of Commerce and Industry had many interesting sessions ranging from food processing and safety standards to e-commerce. The aim through the show series is to minimise the wastage of food in India through promoting efficient food processing and storage technologies and systems.

Concurrent Events:

ACCOLADES

- Krishna Byre Gowda, Minister of Agriculture
(Government of Karnataka)

A forum like this, connects those with technologies with the ones in need of technological solutions. It helps in raising the awareness level about the availability of technological solutions and knowledge.

- B.S. Muralidhara, General Manager,
Head of Grain Milling, Buhler India

We always get a very good response here. The display of machinery helps in facilitating meaningful discussions. It is a good platform for industry stakeholders to come and see the products of so many companies at one single point. It is an extremely good platform for the industry.

- Rohit Kanuga, Manager Committee Member
All India Plastics Manufacturers' Association

APMA is very happy with the response it has received at the exhibition. We have seen an interest for the use of plastics in agriculture, so we too are trying our best to promote it. The visitors, who were not just from Karnataka but even from many other Indian states, showed a keen interest in understanding the latest developments in plastics and how it can further help in agriculture.

- Bhakti Dakwale, Assistant Manager Marketing,
Hassia Packaging Pvt. Ltd.

We have been participating in this exposition for a few years now. We receive very good response here. Even this year we had visitors from retailers, distributors, and many leading companies, like ITC and Unilever.

- Dhruv Gupta, Director, Grain Milling Division
Bansal Group

This is the largest exhibition in India for our industry. We have been participating for the last five years and every year, we get a very good response.

- Ankur Gupta, Director
Panicle Group

We deal with Basmati and non-basmati rice. Producers as well as exporters. The response has been fabulous for us. Many clients from all over India. We received a few potential clients from Kuwait, Egypt, and Spain. We are expecting that many of these deals will be finalised. We will definitely participate next year as well and with a larger stall.

- Arihant Lunkad, Consultant
Andhra Pradesh Food Processing Society.

Basically here all the investors explore the potential projects that can be profitable. Many people have expressed their interest in investing in our state. We have managed to reach out to people who are interested in the state. Every day we received almost 300-500 trade visitors. I am hoping a lot of it will materialise.

- Yuvraj Santhakumar, Managing Partner
Ambal Imports & Exports

A nine month old company. We were waiting for our certifications and now that we have received them, we are hitting the market. It's a very good expo, we have received a lot of inquiries and the response is just great! As far as I am concerned, at this show we have managed to meet a lot of people, who want to take this product to their state, especially the northern states of India. We also met a few international clients, hopefully that will go on to turnout well.

- Joel Huberdeau, Offshore Manager
Supreme International Limited

The response has been fantastic. We are new to the Indian market. We are very pleased with the visitors we have received. It's our second time at the show. The response this year is extremely focussed. A very good show!

- Cagdas Karakuzu, Director
MySilo Grain Storage Systems Co.

This expo is very good for all the people related to agribusiness. India is among the top producers of maize, wheat and rice. We are doing very good business here. This expo is an extremely great chance for anyone who wishes to launch their products in the Indian subcontinent. Moreover, the customers too get a nice idea of the products as they get the opportunity to compare the products at one place.

- D. Lakshmanan, Senior Engineer
Marketing, Fowler Westrup (India) Pvt. Ltd.

We have been participating through the years. We managed to meet many potential customers. We met clients from many other parts of India too.

- Halit Shasheet, Business Area Manager
Bastak Group

We are in the flour milling sector. We received many good clients. This is our fifth year here. It's an extremely professional show.

- Sanghyuk Lucas Lee, Principal Researcher, Global Business
Team, Foundation of Agri. Tech. Commercialization & Transfer, Korea

It is extremely good! If you even compare it with the kind of response we receive in other South East Asian countries, then this is perhaps the best. This will definitely help us in establishing ourselves in India and we are thinking positively about participating next year too.

- Parth Vasavada, Executive Director
Vasavada Group

This is the second edition that we have participated in. This year, we met many new companies from China and many other countries. The expo is especially good in two ways, we get a chance to meet stakeholders from not just all parts of India, but even from the world over. It's a synergy of B2B as well as B2C contacts. It's a wonderful proposition, it has been improving every year. Media Today Group has managed everything really well. I am extremely happy with the expo!

- Sanjay Sane, Partner
Technocare Systems

This is the third year. We have received a very positive response. We are seeking distributors for our products and for this we got an opportunity to interact with people from Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Kerala and many other parts of India. We will definitely participate next year too.

- Makarand Mandke, Director
Sesotec India Pvt. Ltd.

We deal with processing equipment that are mainly used in the grain industry. We participate in this exhibition to showcase our product range to the grain industry. We received a very good response and we were able to promote our products to the target customers.

- Mehmet Erbay, Sales Manager
Alapala India Pvt. Ltd.

Participating in such forums strengthens our name and image in the market. The trade visitors that we received displayed a very keen interest in our products.
